Dear Parents/Carers,

4.12.23

On Wednesday 13th and Friday 15th December 2023, the Infant School would like to invite parents to attend a performance of our play, "The Most Important Card of All." This will consist of singing, dancing and a variety of Christmas characters to entertain our audiences. There will be a showing at 2:00pm on each day. Pre-school aged children are welcome at these afternoon performances.

To ensure the numbers of people in our school hall remains at a safe level vis-à-vis fire regulations, we are limiting tickets strictly to two per family with a maximum limit for each performance. Tickets can be split between the two performances to ensure pupils have one person watching at each event, if this is preferable. We urge separated parents to opt for this latter option to ensure both parents get to see their child. Tickets can be booked by completing the relevant Google Form that was sent out to all parents on Friday 1st December 2023. Many of you have already completed this. Bookings will be collated by staff and tickets will be sent home to parents via the children. Please note that once the maximum limit is reached for a performance the other date will be offered to parents. Please also remember to bring your tickets with you, as these will be collected as you enter.

We hope you will be able to attend and enjoy being part of another festive event.

Yours sincerely,

Bradley Young
Headteacher
